

STATEMENT DEFINITIONS

What all the columns in the table mean:

	Period No – is the month that the charge for your home or any payment is added to your rent account.
	Date – is the actual date the charge or payment is added to your rent account.
 STATEMENT DETAILS FOR - MR A.N. OTHER <ul style="list-style-type: none">  total monthly charge (for your home)  Cash or direct debit (your payment)  housing benefit (payment) 	Description – this details, what type of charge or payment is added to your rent account.

	Charges – this is the amount of money that is added to your rent account.
 STATEMENT DETAILS FOR - MR A.N. OTHER  total monthly charge (for your home)  Cash or direct debit (your payment)  housing benefit (payment) £-10.00 adjustment (incorrect payment added)  	Adjustments – this is for Orwell purposes only and is for us to make sure that your rent account is correct.
	Payments - this is any money that Orwell has received for your rent account.
	Balance – this is the amount of money owing after all charges and payments have been added to your rent account.
£125.33 	AR – means an arrear or debt.
-£125.33 	CR – means a credit.
£000.00 	0.00 CR – means there is nothing left to pay for this period.