

This Week At Orwell | Thursday 20th July 2023

One Big Multicultural Festival | Alexandra Park, Ipswich

The One Big Multicultural Festival returns to Alexandra Park on Sunday 23rd July. The event is a celebration of Suffolk's many cultures and brings communities together. Previously held in September, this year the festival will take place in July. One Big Multicultural Festival is a free-to-attend family and community event with something for everyone. BSC Multicultural Services (BSCMS) host a range of activities on the day from world music, food and children's entertainment to the annual Kabaddi sports event. For more info click here >>

Preparing you home for the winter

Today I was joined by Simon Bennett, Repairs & Estates Manager here at Orwell. We chatted about the importance of checking your boiler, extractor fans and trickle air vents at some point over the summer, so that you are ready for the winter. If you feel that you need further assistance or guidance when making these checks, please Get in touch here >>

Kind words from Orwell Customer, Val

"Just want to thank Ross for the Orwell News videos, they are great! Always makes me smile. Also the app, yes Ross it is good to be able to contact out of office hours when the phone lines are closed. Bless you all, well done! Val"

Kids Eat Free (or for £1 over the summer)

The team at 'Money Saving Central have released a list of all the places that kids can eat free (or for £1) over the summer holidays. For more info click here >>