Hedge Cutting

You may remember earlier in the year that we shared that hedge cutting around the organisation had paused throughout the Summer months whilst we allowed for the local wildlife to nest and thrive. As we are now into September, we'd like to update that hedge cutting has now begun again and we ask that you bear with us whilst we get round to all our locations in the coming weeks.

Preparing you home for the winter

We would like to remind customers of the importance of checking your boiler, extractor fans and trickle air vents at some point before the cold weather sets in, so that you are ready for the winter.

If you feel that you need further assistance or guidance when making these checks, please Get in touch here >>

Access to free E-books & Audiobooks

Do you have a Library Card and enjoy reading or listening to audiobooks? If you have a library card, you can access eBooks and audiobooks for free using the free app 'Libby' or 'Borrowbox'.

All you need is to be a member of Suffolk Libraries, or to sign up with them, and they can provide you with a code to sign up to these apps. For more info click here >>
