Key points

Staff workshop for complaints- Education for all Orwell staff on how to report and follow processes properly. Stops anyone dismissing a customer's complaints and the complaint not being recorded. We want them to try to understand the logistics but need to decide where to hold it and whether or not to mark this workshop mandatory.

Changes

- The same team member deals with and completes the complaint fully.
- When all works are done following the complaint, a letter will be sent to the customer to declare this. This gives the customer a chance to contest.

Support & Care

Complaints are complex and currently sit with the Care & Support Team as currently we don't have the knowledge that they have. We aim for these to sit with The Customer Resolutions Team with consistency and empathy built in.

We need to make sure all processes are followed properly to be in line with the ombudsman, this will be guided by the S&C Teams knowledge. Letters are being sent without our knowledge, so we are currently unable to monitor them, which is important. We are aware that this is definitely an area that we need to bring in line as if the Ombudsmen queries anything and we don't have the record or the processes haven't been followed correctly, this is not good. We also currently don't know to what extent there is a problem

Compensation is difficult with support and care as its very emotive (e.g dignity) and we are trying to understand if guidance can be put in place to identify the amount of compensation. This is already in place for other complaints.

6.0	KPIS	Key points Void days are nowhere near target, We will be going external with our voids, so we hope this frees up our repairs team from voids to improve repairs. ASB is slightly rising which is a national issue and we can see this from TSM calls. We recently went through our ASB processes with the other associations that ours is quite low, in Q1 ASB will be our first scrutiny. Tenancy Sustainment success is not within their control as its down to the customer following the programme and remaining, unfortunately it gets difficult for some and they drop out. There is no timeline for this. Complaints are quite low in comparison to others, only 2 complaints are with the Ombudsman as some are rejected as we have followed all processes. ORS right first time is due mostly to a breakdown in communication when it comes to measurements as usually the customer would be asked to send measurements. On the day they would be under the impression that ORS are fitting but they are only there to measure, which can leave the customer annoyed and frustrated. We need to make the decision to either ask for measurements and trust them or be honest with the customer that the first visit will be to measure up. We have trusted measurements from the customer and they have been completely wrong. M.M questioned if there is a way to send text of what they're doing and not just operative coming	To query with I.T
